ARTHUR LINDEN - A LIFE IN BOOKS

Biography Summary

An invented family story for learning the complete Person record.

Early years

Arthur is an invented person born in Prague in 1885. In this teaching story he learned bookbinding, married Clara Reed in 1912, and helped raise Robert and Marie.

Work and service

He ran a small bookbindery and later taught map repair in a fictional engineering service. The rank, uniform and insignia are invented examples.

A shared family archive

The 1938 garden and 1940 library photographs show Arthur, Clara and Robert. They are generated images used to demonstrate face tagging and shared references.
